

Emsi 2019 Conference

'TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE'

Defining, Developing and Delivering the Skills of the Future

Agenda

Time	Topic
9.00-10.00	Registration
10.00-10.15	Introduction & Welcome to Emsi 2019 Conference Andy Durman , Managing Director, Emsi UK
10.15-10.50	DEFINING TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE How can we understand what skills are going to be needed in the future? Naomi Clayton , Policy & Research Manager, Centre for Cities
10.50-11.25	DEVELOPING TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE Why are employers focusing more on skills competencies and what are the implications? Kirstie Donnelly MBE , Managing Director, City & Guilds Group
11.25-11.55	Refreshments & Networking
11.55-12.30	DELIVERING TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE How can we ensure that we keep abreast with the needs of an ever-changing labour market? Richard Miles , PVC of enterprise and engagement, The University of Sydney
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-14.00	EXPLORING TOMORROW'S WORKFORCE What are the emerging trends as we look towards the labour market of the future? Duncan Brown , Senior Economist, Emsi UK
14.00-15.00	Workshops (practical applications/case studies) Choice of 3 (details to be confirmed)
15.00-15.30	Refreshments & Networking
15.30-15.55	TOMORROW'S GLOBAL WORKFORCE How is the global workforce changing, and what can you do to keep up with what's going on? Andrew Crapuchettes - Chief Executive Officer, Emsi
15.55-16.00	Closing Remarks
16.00	Close